Topics covered may include technical subjects; environmental, health, and safety issues; business case studies; or other areas of potential interest to the nanotechnology community.

DATES: The NNCO will hold one or more webinars between the publication of this Notice and December 31, 2017. The first webinar will be held on or after January 18, 2017.

ADDRESS: For information about upcoming webinars, please visit <http://www.nano.gov/PublicWebinars>. Many webinars will be broadcast via AdobeConnect, which requires the installation of a free plug-in on a computer or of a free app on a mobile device.

Submitting Questions: Some webinars may include question-and-answer segments in which questions of interest may be submitted through the webinar interface. During the question-and-answer segments of the webinars, submitted questions will be considered in the order received and may be posted on the NNI website (<http://www.nano.gov>). A moderator will identify relevant questions and pose them to the speaker(s). Due to time constraints, not all questions may be addressed during the webinars. The moderator reserves the right to group similar questions and to skip questions, as appropriate. The Public Webinar page on nano.gov (<http://www.nano.gov/PublicWebinars>) will indicate which webinars will include question-and-answer segments.

REGISTRATION: Registration for the webinars will open approximately two weeks prior to each event and will be capped at 500 participants or as space limitations dictate.
